

Trip Report June 9, 2014 Greater Allegheny Passage Greenock and Boston portions

Submitted by Dianne Machesney

Flowers:

White clover
Dandelion
MF rose
Honeysuckle vine
Catalpa tree
Ground ivy
Black medic
Mock orange bush
Curled dock
English plantain
Privot
Creeping buttercup
Purple deadnettle
Hop clover
Garden sedum
Asiatic dayflower
Peppergrass
Greater celendine
Common chickweed
Smaller forget-me-nots
Garlic mustard
Dame's rocket
Cleavers
Daisy fleabane
Honewort
Broad leaved waterleaf
Cow parsnip
Corn salad
Lady's thumb
Poison ivy
Persian speedwell

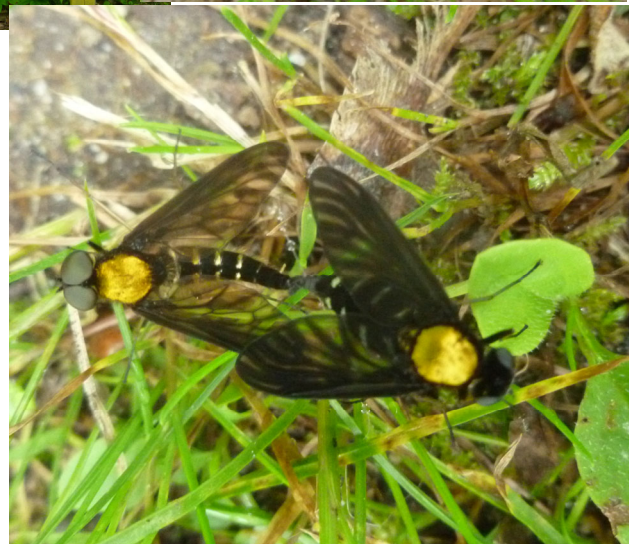

Additional from Dead Man's Hollow Section of GAP

Wild hydrangea
Arrowwood
Yellow oxalis
Purple flowering raspberry
Golden Alexander
Kidney leaved buttercup
Alumroot
Impatiens bittercress
Red clover
Alsace clover
Stonecrop

Eight humans and two canines walked the Grennock portion of the Greater Allegheny Passage. Skies were cloudy after an early morning misty rain. Temps stayed about 65 degrees. Around noon, we ate our lunches and afterwards, continued to Boston, PA to walk Dead Man's Hollow.

Birds:

Scarlet tanager
Balt. Oriole
Indigo bunting
Towhee
Flicker
Catbird
Grackle
Wood thrush
Goldfinch
Carolina chickadee
House sparrow
Cardinal
Robin
Mourning dove
Chipping sparrow
Acadian flycatcher
Red-eyed vireo
Yellow warbler

In Fruit:

Aniseroot
Mulberry
Indian strawberry
Purslane speedwell
Bladdernut

Other:

American toad
Green frog
Azure butterfly

